No, my irresistibly good looks and T:A ratio.
Of course you've had a part in my marketability as a pilot. I am not disputing that at all.

Unfortunately, it seems you would prefer I just stick with some menial job, like flight instructing, instead of pursuing bigger goals and opportunities. You encourage me to work, just as long as it doesn't lead to me being too successful. Again with the cap...

I got 2 separate offers for TV shows this week. ESPN and a production company with past experience on Oprah & Ellen. Of course it will soon all fall through because of the press. How far do you want me to take these talks so you can understand how many opportunities, time and potential money this costs me?
