Good morning. My neck hurts again but not as much...:)

I had a very good sleep too

I would like to ask u smth. Do u know Michael J Malik?

Im asking cuz two of my girl friends are in NY trying to make it. Not models. But smart and not bad looking. Trying to work in advertising. Anywha they met this guy last night. He seemed really nice. (they all do at first haha) and they were just saying how hard it is without working visa to find a job. And he said that if they bring their portfolio and he thinks they r good he has no problem helping them and find them a job in one of his companies. So i just wanted to ask u if u know anything about this gentleman and if he is gonna want anything in return ? :)) which i personally think but they r naive :))

Thank u!
