Subject: about my trip can i get a punch list from you of what you expect done? or do you want me to speak with you directly?

because just between you and me i really want to know in ref to this trip what you want me to do. but again if you want to wait to speak me directly thats fine the advantage of the punch list would be so i can start thinking about solutions now, the advantage of waiting is always to see if i can pull off the impossible

I really really appreciate you bringing me out and flying me back by the way thank you

scott
