Dear Mr. Epstein,

Leon asked me to send you the following names. He wants you to know that some of these people can speak intelligently about repertoire, some about performance, and some both. He also wants you to know that we have sold 120,000 units of mp3 live recordings as of December worldwide, many of them the only recordings of some musical works.

Byron Adams, UC Santa Barbara

Deborah Borda, Executive Director LA Philharmonic

James Conlon, conductor

George Crumb, composer

Peter Davis, former critic New York Magazine

Paul Griffiths, former critic NY Times

Piers Lane, pianist

James Levine, conductor

Simon Morrison, Princeton University

Nico Muhly, composer

Andrew Porter, critic

Alex Ross, critic The New Yorker

Barrymore Scherer, critic Wall Street Journal

Howard Shore, composer

Elaine Sisman, Columbia University

Steve Smith, critic New York Times and Time Out New York

Mark Swed, critic LA Times

Christoph Wolf, Harvard University

Best regards,

Lynne
