I liked Woody's movie. I liked that it wasn't overtly a farce. Kate Blanchett was fantastic in it. Ugly and good. Not great. Felt like she was aping Judy Davis in Husbands and Wives a bit. I do understand why you didn't like it so much but, as a woman on the verge of nervous breakdown myself, I liked it a lot!

Yes. You mentioned you'd put me in touch with Kerrey when we were in Boston. But I never heard from you...

I also told you the fall term doesn't start til August 26, so we have time. We are already 2/3 of the way through the summer term which is probably peopled with lower quality teachers and students anyway.

I was just in Europe working and volunteering with my [REDACTED] for the last three weeks. I was off the grid anyway. There's no rush. I'm playing the [REDACTED] in August. I'm being kept busy.

And yes, I am more than ok. I am actually quite well.

The big brass balls I mentioned a month or two ago.

Oh yes... and to start this goddam job at [REDACTED]!

But in lieu of a firm start date, I would like to explore what the New School has to offer. And I'd like, if you can connect us, to talk to Bob Kerrey about it. I'm sure he can give me his take on the writing program. Whether I start working sooner or later, I can still take a class while I work. It would make me very happy.

Am going to the premiere of Woody's latest tonight. Have you seen it yet?

Heat wave here dying down somewhat. So glad to be in NY either way...

I'm arrived in NY yesterday evening. Thank you so much for letting me stay in that lovely apartment. Letting me have the freedom to be here, before [REDACTED] becomes concrete is a big deal. I really appreciate it.

How is the ranch?
