What are you doing there? Is it already Springtime? How was dinner with Priely? I am progressing somewhat. Blocked a little at the moment, but reading a lot so that I don't waste too much time. I took your advice and didn't press further with your pal Gwendolyn. I continued working on the script, but as soon as I have a long treatment I'm putting it aside. The story is not terribly compelling. I'm almost done rewriting one of my pilots.

Can't you have a dinner with Tom Nagel and John Searle and some of those Dawkins materialists and Jaron Lanier and Woody. I want to know how Woody would talk to these guys.

Will I see you when you come to LA for the conference? I hope so.
