
From: President <president@bard.edu>
Sent: Sunday, March 24, 2013 8:08 PM
To: Jeffrey Epstein
Subject: Re:

I am obviously disappointed. Is there something I do that you would fund? And no, friendship is not at stake but continuing to work depends for me on finding a way to make things happen. But thanks for the heads up; I clearly think you are wrong but I would not hazard trying to change your mind . Best. When is a good time to speak?
Leon

Sent from my iPhone

On Mar 24, 2013, at 8:51 AM, Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com <mailto:jeevacation@gmail.com> > wrote:

Leon, I have mixed emotions. I have asked, researched, spent a great deal of my own time listening reading , gathering, asking others, and have decided not to fund the symphony. . I wanted to let you know so that you would not hold false hopes. I value your friendship greatly. I have found little , and that characterization is already generous, support for the ambitious, and laudatory goals. An academic idea that eventually fails , in its musical realization, would best categorize even the most good willed of commentary. sorry, I hope this does not effect our continuing relationship

--

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein

Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com <mailto:jeevacation@gmail.com> , and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments. copyright -all rights reserved