Re participation by SEC attorney-there seems to be two different attorneys. One -I will call the "disclosure" lawyer was involved in S-1 and Form 3 filings. The other was the "reorg" man. He did the work on the 2007 corporate reorg but also authored the agreements among principals and language related to the AOG units. Do you still want them to participate? Is the disclosure lawyer enough? Can I put them on call " via teleconference instead of inviting in person? Thanks<=o:p>
