=br>Looks like the solar neighbor program is ka-putz. Sounds like it was =iscontinued in the crash. Not surprising, really. I'll see if I can =rack down other contacts but I imagine the best path forward will be to =ust identify the top 3 players in the residential PV industry and =equest a quote from them. Do you want me to just send over contact info =nd have Bryce reach out to them to discuss the technicalities?
