what can I offer to such a generous man.. yesterday night wearing my favourite harvard sweater I thought of different things you might like :

- I can draft summaries of long and boring UN resolutions you need to read, so you can save time as I will submit you a shorter version; or any other articles/documents
- I can make research on the topic or person you are interested in and give you an organized paper with all information
- I can give you snowboarding classes or lessons of Russian
- I can be your interpreter in France, Russia or Norway
- I can find beautiful women for you in Paris
- I can strip down for you, make massages and all the things you like... I would love to get dirty in UN building in the huge General Assembly hall
- I will pose naked for you if you enjoy drawing/painting
