Thanks, I will get the LSATS book.

I also have a public speaking group at the Bar Association today. I decided to do more public speaking so this week I read 2 Dale Carnegie books, took his workshop and joined Toastmasters at 3 different chapters. 'Table topics', where you get asked a question and have to get on the stage right away to answer it in public, makes me want to throw up. I need to fix that, so this is my newest fun challenge...

I think you might enjoy the study work for the Law Board. The LSATs/ there is a section on logic and critical thinking. The study guides are amusing, and will continue to improve the way you are able to get things done your way.
