As some of my friends know, I created and chaired the TED conferences from 1984-2002. I am now deeply committed to redesigning the idea of a gathering. If this interests you, read below and share with your network. Is this email not displaying correctly?

A =elebration of improvised conversation: Intellectual jazz.

Richard Saul Wurman, creator of =he TEDMED & the eg conferences, will celebrate =mprovised conversation in its most informative =anner.

No schedule
No expensive =ickets

Simply pairings of amazingly =nteresting individuals prompted by a question, generating a =onversation. For 10 minutes to 50 minutes. And so it will go – =onversations interlaced with threads of improvised music. An =strophysicist & a microbiologist. An actor & a playwright. A =azz musician & a classical one. An energetic exploration of the =ost art of conversing.

The 100 most interesting =ndividuals:
minds & musicians in improvised =iscourse

A live =erformance.
A tablet =pp.
A live =tream.

The most innovative moments, the =parks of ideas, & fundamental truths come from conversations =etween two individuals.

In the future, the truth will be =ur most valuable commodity. It is fitting that truth, a commodity that =e most value and desire, is amazingly =carce.

If among all the buttons on your =emote control there was one button called truth, wouldn't you push that =utton?

WWW.WWW is designed to metaphorically =rovide such a button and create a setting that will allow truth to be =evealed.

On 18/20 =eptember 2012 W stands for World.
