T=e finest travel writers come together for an evening of tales of travel a=d exploration.

Amelia Richards visits San Sebastian , Spain, a 'city of water' which breathes romance and legends thr=ugh its narrow streets and open boulevards, sweats blood and salt throu=h its strident maritime history, and whose food is the milk and honey o= Mount Olympus.

Christina Lamb explains her 28 year fascination with Afghanistan</=trong> - from the Tora Bora caves which once hid Osama bin Laden to the p=ppyfields and Taliban stronghold of Helmand, and the poetry, coloured=glass and Jihad Museum of Herat.
