Great article and well deserved. Given the cash flow struggles at Apes Hill I think we should develop an approach to be more resort play driven until the housing market picks up, and take advantage of the promotions. We could certainly use the rounds and dollars.

Again, congratulations.

All,
Recently American Airlines started direct non-stop flights from Dallas to Barbados. In an effort to promote business for American Airlines, Bob West, the former President of the Texas Golf Writers Association, was asked to do a golf tourist analysis of Barbados. I just received a copy of his article, which I have attached.
