Good day,

Based on the correspondence we had last week via email and our phone conversation, I have been working to organize the purchase and shipment of Thirty 15' coconut palms from Puerto Rico.

I have spoken to the manager of the Farm in Puerto Rico, where we purchased the trees. They want me to come to the Farm to measure, select and tag the trees we want.

And then when they receive a deposit on the total amount, they will begin digging the trees and repairing them for shipping.

As for the shipping, we spoke about using The Commander, since you have credit with them. She has been off island and will return next week, so we can schedule a date to ship.

*Tropical charged us just under $3,000 per flatrack all included.
+ plus some overage charges

What I am trying to do now is locate 3 Flatracks to rent, so that we can hire a trucking company in Puerto Rico to bring the FlatRacks from The Port in San Juan to The Farm and then back to the port once they've been loaded.

I have been having a little trouble solidifying the rental of the 3 Flatracks, Emad and I have spoke and met to work together and make this happen.

Things are definitely moving forward.

I'll see you on Tuesday.

Thank you,

Igala
