hi jeffrey,

..ok, then let's not wait if you have already t=e furniture and rugs, but then what color should i do cabana no 3? (caba=a no 3 i did green, and it is located right next to the pool, i hope i=m not confused) should i do it red/cranberry... i notice in the e-mail you=sent me yesterday, that [REDACTED] mentioned something like [REDACTED] told her abou= red/cranberry.

sory but nobody told me about redish color. last time when=we talk about the colors for those three cabanas it was like a month and a=half ago, when [REDACTED] was at the island too..it as before i satarted pain=ing the ceiling in the library, and i thought we are set with the colors=for the cabanas thats why i didnt ask about that again.

maybe you can send me a sample of the color, for the room and fo= the bathroom too.

so anyway before i put a new color on the w=lls i have to make them white and then put the new color... so should i do=that and then wait for the color? (talking about cabana no3)

thank you,

hi jeffrey,

...you chose the color blue for the cabana no 1..=you said blue somehow like the sky color, and for the bathroom no 1 use =he same pattern i did the sample(with rombs) but use a stronger blue than =he blue i used in the sample on the wall.

then for cabana no 2 and 3 you said in one bathroom lavender - lil=c and the room white with horizontal lavender lines (like =into..) and the other one similar but use green instead. this is w=at i remember. i dont think you chose blue for cabana no 1 and the= again blue for the cabana 2 or 3.

anyway, i think we should wait with the green until you come he=e and see, and then decide, eventually change the color if you dont lik= it. it would take me one day for the room and one day for the bat=room because the preparations are done now.

i didnt see the picture emad took, but maybe the green in the ba=hroom looks diferent in the picture. in real it is an optimistic green..it=makes the bathroom happy. you will see..

and somehow in the ba=hrooms, because the walls are close to each other they reflect the color=2C and then a color gets much more intens than it is in real. thats why in=the bathroom in cabana no 2 which is somehow lilac-blue now, i used at t=e begining like lavender..lilac, but it didnt look good... when i put th= color on the wall it looks intens..it was tiring..even when i did the sa=ple on the paper it looked good..it was light. so then i added a l=ttle more blue to turn it more towards blue..

anyway its very confusing with the colors i think because of the l=ght from outside. in th emorning its one color at lunch time its d=fferent, at afternoon different, then if its cloudy its diferent too..=you will see.

beside this, can we sta=t with the white venetian plaster in the master bedroom? one person can co=e sunday and start monday. then later like thursday i can jump in there to= and we might be able to finish it before christmas.

thank you,
