Dear Jeffrey , just this morning i open my email =ox...too much things to do before exams...plus friends takes so =uch time...i never had such an intensive communication =ith people as i have now...they are young, very =ntelligent,lettered,rich with ideas,real and antural people...by this =riendship i feel growing up my personality...really,it is amazing =o feel what you need, what you want...to know who you are...

I am still thinking what i am going to do-going back to =eneva and starting pilates, or staying here in Lithuania and trying to =ind my self doing little business..

life is about choice...

it takes me long to decide.i'm just naturally worried about =inding an extra job,apartment in Geneva...but i'm definitely feel sure =bout what i want.i want to have something secured, the =mportant thing for me is quality of life. Lithuania can't offer nothing =ike that at the moment,maybe later...and having pilates certification =o matter where i am -Switzerland =ithuania, US,Australia,... i always have a job.it is not easy =ob at all...and not easy to achieve what i wish-open my own =ilates studio,spa...but everything is possible if you really want =t.it takes long time, energy, love,responsibility...i =hink i am ready for that...and i do love Geneva.

Jeffrey i miss you so much! how are you? ...i hope i =ould come for a while to US after all my exams...
Kisses, hugs...
