To start , this is one of the greatest poliical revival opportunitis of al= time/ The crisis begins with a lesson on money. NOT finance, MONEY. =t its core , the whole system is based on TRUST.. However people no longer =rust in any of the more standard institutions. They have witnessed the mend=city of politicians, BUSH's WMD debacle. They have trouble trusting t=eir church. (Priest abuse cases). The Media has transformed into tabloid i=ntertainmnet., the congress, votes only along self interest lines. Everyone=questions their basic tenets.. When someone wants an answer to a question t=ey no longer ask their rabbi, or teacher, they ask the internet. It i= a new dynamic system, the derivative market is an integral part of the mes=. You want to think about a conferent of the worlds smartest people. IT mu=t include internet experts.. Trying to regulate the finacial markets is equ=valent to regulating the internet. Laws need to be changed. It will take ti=e, Gordon thinks like an old man. Old solutions will not work. You will be =he architect of LABOR 2.0
