Subject: I visited w/Lyn today

I visited with Lyn today for an hour and a half...she is still at the hospital but looked WAY better than when I saw her last. She was awake, talking, walking, smiling...They are now letting Lyn control her own pain medication...she was also given a patch with pain medication. When I was there they took Lyn down for a CT scan to check on the stent they placed in her bile duct to make sure it is doing its job and confirm no infection (she has had a fever over the past few days) ... She should have the results soon... apparently I chose the right day to visit with the fever gone today and she was feeling better.

She hopes for her second round of chemo but she must get stronger... She still talks about work and wants to make sure all is running smoothly in her absence....she was definitely happy to see me...<?xml version="1.0" encoding="UTF-8"?>
