I am well and so is everyone in my family.

Sophie still lives in LA and her blog is growing in users: angelfoodstyle.com <<http://angelfoodstyle.com>> She has nearly 100,000 Instagram followers.

Henry is going to take a leave from Yale as he has started a foundation which is growing rapidly. He got some awful press early on but is relaunching this month with major sponsorships from some big brands. He also is getting some nice appointments for a 21 year old: <http://berggruen.org/groups/6>

Adam is still plugging away at a PhD in artificial intelligence and national security, he's getting some gigs with think tanks <https://www.newamerica.org/our-people/adam-elkus/> and also with the government. He got married a year ago to a great gal who works at the World Bank.

I hope you are well.

Bill
