Jeffrey,

The bots did the sweep. Here are the new results taken as of a minute ag=. You have only one negative article left on front page of google, which i= the Huffington Post article. The Huffington Post is extremely hard to mov=, because it is so powerful, has millions of links to it, and uploads mass=ve new and original content it on a daily basis with posting from out side=readers. We managed to push it down the page, as it used to be at the top.=If we were able to post original content to both the science and the org s=te (absolutely not a single word to this day by [REDACTED] just talk), we wo=ld have been able to push it down even further, and off the page. WE did m=nage to get rid of the daily beast article, which is now far removed, i=spite of their own efforts to keep it prominent.

Toxic suggested search engine terms that popped up automatically when=you typed in your name are also now removed.

W=kipedia was an important victory, as it will always be at the top of the s=arch engine results. ow the head lines do not mention convicted sex offend=r or pedophile. Instead, Philanthropic work, Epstein Foundation, Promotio= of Scientists. We have stopped the hacking on your wiki site, and that wa= a major effor. Your wiki entry now is pretty tame, and bad stuff has been=muted, bowlerized, and pused to the bottom. Careful editing and wording ha= muted the effect immensely. We hacked the site to replace the mug shot an= caption, and now has an entirely different photo and caption. This =as a big success.

We pushed the=Edge all the way up to the front page, where it was previously buried o= page 5 of google search.

We have promoted the ot=er jeffrey epsteins, and other pages are also filled with your material.</=iv>

And, while the sites are up, and in the direction we hoped, they are still new, and subject to volatility, especially if new original content is not added on a minimum of a weekly basis. I have been forbidden to add new content to the philanthropic site as well as the science site, and therefore, as a result our rating slipped down (still on the first page, but would have liked them (and some of the articles to be able to push Huffington off page). We also helped with your images, and the first images that come of you on a google search are not of your mug shot, etc.

Your daily beast foe is still at it, and trying to promote her sites against you in the same way that we try to depromote you.

As far as this site is concerned, and the continuation of this, I do not know what you wish to do. Clearly, you have no interest in my continuing. And, I am not sure if you want to continue the project at all. If the latter, and you stop, eventually it will just go to the way of entropy, and it will return to the old form. The major work has been done, but it needs to be maintained. For it to get better results, it needs to have constant input and supervision, and that means generating proper content, not just editing and grammatical fixes. Writers need to know what to write. The philanthropy site is at the bottom of the page precisely because you have not allowed us to add any content to it, and as a result it suffers.

You paid Mike $2500, which he applied for the purchasing of his replacement servers, but his fee of $7500 balance is now due if you want to continue. Please let me know what you want to do. I need to inform him, and if you are not going to use him, he needs to take on his other clients and devote his time there.

="/div>

This needs to be contrasted with what we started with, which was a search on your name, which had nine/10 very toxic prominent stories, and toxic Wiki article and headline.
