Palestinian Media Watch reported yesterday that Abbas' political party Fatah had honored Japanese terrorist Kozo Okamoto for his part in the terrorist attack in Israel's airport in 1972, in which 24 civilians were killed and 70 were injured. Fatah's response to PMW's report was to immediately issue two follow-up posts, "in response to the Israeli media." http://www.palwatch.org/main.asp?fi=157&doc_id=17951

In the new posts, Fatah reiterated that it views the murderer of 24 as a hero, and added that if Israelis want peace they must leave what Fatah calls "our land", the term it usually uses to mean all of Israel. As PMW has reported, PA policy is to deny Israel's right to exist on any part of Israel and Mahmoud Abbas himself calls all of Israel an "occupied territory." http://www.palwatch.org/main.aspx?fi=157&doc_id=17608

The following are today's Fatah Facebook posts in response to PMW's exposure that Fatah glorified the murderer of 24:

The Fatah Movement is proud of all who have joined its ranks and the ranks of the Palestinian revolution for the freedom of the Palestinian people. We are proud of every fighter who has joined our mighty revolution. If Israel wants peace, it should get out of our land and we'll live in peace, for it [Israel] is the last occupation in the world."

"Who is the comrade and the international revolutionary Kozo Okamoto? "

Kozo remained in the occupation's solitary cells for 13 whole years until 1985, the year of his release to freedom. The Popular Front - the General Command [a body that split off the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine] insisted on putting the name of Kozo Okamoto on the list of Palestinian prisoners that would be released in the great prisoner-exchange deal that it [the Popular Front] carried out with the Zionist entity.

But the Kozo that came out of the Zionist prison was not the same K=zo who had entered it 13 years previously; he came out [of prison] as the =hadow of a man, completely broken and suffering from terrible physical and=mental disabilities. They destroyed him physically and mentally." <=div>
