Dear Jeffrey,

My heart is fine, but=early last week it became clear that I had lost half of my blood. I =pent four days in the hospital getting transfused and prodded, poked in ev=ry orifice, to search for bleeding. It is likely that I was menstruating from my gut and with a change in anticoa=ulant this week it appears that the bleeding has stopped. I am a bit=tired, a little anemic, but on the mend.

I will try and call t=is weekend to learn how Jeffrey is doing.

Best,

Richard
