Good Day,

Emad has =ent you some pictures of the lanscape progress that has been done over =he weekend and =oday.

In respnse to the news that you have been concerned =bout the planting of the fishtail and coconut palms by the Master =edroom and The Laundry, as well as the overall completion of the tasks =utlined on our list, I offer this information;

There has been some delays in planting the =rees by your Master Bedroom and the Laundry, due to logistical issues =n respect to the availability of needed machinery, and the necessary =teps of progress, specifically, having to wait til' vital steps of =onstruction have been finished so we can get in and plant our trees. We =ave waited while the LSJ construction crew finished the Laundry, then =he walls, then the road, and now we are waiting until the propane gas =ine gets put in so we, can finally backfill behind the wall and plant =ur trees.
 I still remain confident that we will complete our =asks.

We have been able to finish nearly =ll of the other tasks on our list, while we have had to wait, to do the =ost important. In regard to the rocks below the library/study on the =oint, please review the photos, and advise if you =ant;
   Either way we will plant the three coconut trees in =ront of the stones and then plant =ines/"creepers"

Give =hanks,

Igala
