Hi [REDACTED],

I understand you might be sent to do something for JE in the apt where I am staying but could you PLEASE do not just walk in like into your apt without even knocking in the door. It's not the first time and it's become a little annoying. If you need anything like taking pic as today let us know in advance or at least be aware if we home or not. It's not nice feeling when you know that someone can just walking in any any min. Thanks !

Sincerely
