Jeffrey,
the Barret Jackson (no resreve) auto auction is this Thursday - Sunday in Palm beach, should I register to Bid in case there is some thing worth bidding on for Jen?

I will go to the fair grounds on Wednesday and preview the cars and take photos for you,.

thx

Larry

from Jen:

Larry, there are a few interesting things, not sure what they are going for, but let me know what you think...

(Really, likely too fast, but the Sportster in white is a girls dream bike!... well, my dream bike) The sportsters are the best "girl" bikes. This one is probably too fast, but very fun and cool looking.

Does this shout "red-neck" or what! I know, I'm disgusting. But I've always loved the boxy-old-school Bronco. The land rover defender is a sexy-boxy-beast, but new is not allowed in the states and the old ones I've see just look old and older. The Bronco's are very American and it seems easier to find with a more appealing price tag. (I wanted one of these in high school!)

Super clean, super fun. Definitely in the top 10, maybe even top 5!

The list...

Dream #1 and 2: 1968 Corvette Astro II, 1959 Corvette stingray racer.

Drivers:

1 or 2. Corvette C3 (68 silver w/ blk int.)

1 or 2. Mustang (68 fastback Blk on Blk. no eleanor, no shelby.)

The Other Goodies in no particular order: Chevelle '69 or '70, Bronco 60's 70's, Corvette C2, Z28 Camaro '69 ? or ? ZL-1 Camaro '67, Defender (2 door, hardtop, newish) - impossible new, even "newish" in US, Mercedes G wagon - listed more as a "like" to body-style rumored not easy to keep/poor city driver.

Just an idea of my overall likes to style.... Yes, very red-neck. :)

Hope your well!

Look at car listings and see if anything looks interesting, I'll do the same.

Thx,

Larry
