Hello Jeffrey,

I am sorry for taking your time, but there is something I have to tell you about.

I am glad that I had a chance to meet you, as I think you are a remarkable person and it's good to know if there are still people in this world who help and care about others the way you do. And I feel grateful and I do appreciate the efforts you made to help me. I probably didn't seem to be that thankful to you, because honestly I felt very confused about all the situation.

I was considering about things a lot and finally I came to conclusion: I simply can not accept your help due to some views which strongly stay in my mind, no matter how stupid it may look, but this is my choice.

I wish you all the best and apologize if I wasted your time.

Karina.
