I revised and resent a professional services contract back to Darren after hearing back about your concerns and desired changes. I hope the revised document is more of what you are looking for and I am happy to discuss it further at a time that is convenient for you.

More importantly, I am also writing to you to follow up and set a time to either sit down and meet or to talk on the phone about a few of the next steps that we should get underway with soon.

In particular, I have been monitoring the local media outlets in the Vi and although things are quiet right now there was a recent "reader question" in the Source that caught my attention and made me realize that we should get some time set aside to have more in depth discussion on background and plan for any rapid response actions (if any are required) from our end.

I am available early this week and I am planning to be in the VI Thursday thru Sunday this week
