The number of times i have to hear from my students: "wow, she's so smart"..."wow, she has such great ideas"... "wow, she's so cool", was starting to be too much...)

Kidding aside, all my students are in love with you, and it was indeed a really fun visit for me too. I hope it was for you as well.

We will without question continue to develop these ideas, if for no other reason, then for getting you back here again,

Have a good trip home
