Dear Supporter,

The phrase, "Home for the Holidays" evokes an undeniable sense of comfort, warmth, and togetherness; this is especially true for us here at Maya Angelou Schools.

Our Maya Angelou Learning Center serves the students as more than just a space for inspired learning and academic growth; the MALC is also a place where students can call home, a place where they are encouraged, supported, and loved.

It takes everyone in our Maya Community, including you, to fill our home with all our students' needs.

We are deeply aware that our success and growth could not have happened; without all those in our Maya Community, including you. As always, and especially during this holiday season, we appreciate your support in helping us realize this vision.

We hope you will consider making a gift this season in honor of our alumni, our students, and the place we call home.
