Jeff:

Haven't talked to you for a while and I haven't been to New York.

We're in the process of selling our home and we've just purchased a lovely home in "God's Waiting Room" - Golden Beach, FL. It's a small incorporated town with no high rises at the northern tip of Dade County.

Maybe Woody would buy our house? He was quoted on page six of the New York Post saying that if he were to purchase a summer home it would be in Newport, RI. I think it's a good price and not too expensive for him.

We are ready to move on and would love to chat with you on the phone sometime.

How is your health, wealth and life?

Here are some photos from an article that ran in the New York Times and the listing with photos. Sorry you have to go through all these steps.
