Here is =he draft statement.

&nbs=;

Aside =rom the fact that some of the allegations being levied against me are =alse, those actions which resulted in my pleading to soliciting a minor =or prostitution and soliciting prostitution, as well as those =hich are the subject of the civil suits being reported on in the media, =ccurred more than a decade ago. This was a different time and =hapter in my life and one, with the help of counseling, I have put =ehind me. I am a different person today than I was then and am =ocusing on helping the community through educational, scientific and =ealthcare philanthropic contributions, as well as discharging my =esponsibility as a financier at the highest professional =evel.

At most I would say that the current media allegations date back over a decade, that you deeply regret some of your past conduct, and that your present and future are committed to helping the community through your philanthropic contributions and discharging your responsibilities as a financier at the highest professional level
