Dear Cecile,

I hope you are well.

One o= our strongest performing websites is the www.jeffreyepsteinfoundation.com website. I think the=main reason for its success is that is on Harvard's Program for Evolutionar= Dynamics website-- a powerful platform from Google's standpoint.

I was wondering therefore, if you have your own websit= or if you know of any other websites where I could post a link to Jeffrey'= other websites? For example, his USVI website could be a useful link o= a USVI foundation or education site.

Could I give you a call tomorrow to get your thoughts a=out this?

Thank you so much,
all my best,
