Jeffrey Epstein

I am feeling that you are avoiding me...and I am really upset about it I have no problem with never bringing up this subject again but you are the one that keeps telling me you are going to help me make this deal I have to get back with the lawyer on Monday as I have done a lot of work making this dream a reality. As I told you before my kids keep asking me when we are moving and I am feeling very bad about it as I would never have taken them to the apartment and never ever would have begun discussing it with them. I have been looking at loads of other places and nothing really compares with the place on 69th street not even close. Either way this week is it. [REDACTED] of course never got back to me and I realize you are busy but I wouldn't think to busy to deal with something that is so small in your world but means so much to me.

Remember ever time I asked you are you sure you said of course. If this isn't going to happen I have to tell the kids as well as the lawyer and the architects, as well as trying to extend my lease where I am it's a big big mess because when you told me to go ahead I gave this building notice that I would be moving at the end of my lease and also asked then if need be if I can leave my lease early they agreed if I would let them show my apt which I of course did...I cant jerk them around as my friends no longer own this place and its now owned by a reit and they don't give a crap...jeffrey please be upfront with me I understand that if you cant do this finally at this moment but pleas just return my calls I wont ever let somethin like this come between 30 years of friendship .

Xoxo
