Good evening all

As of 5:45 the vinga port is not active. Hector, vinga and myself will be troubleshooting the problem tomorrow at 10:00 am.

Hector came by the office and he and Jermaine went to the Caprita site. Hector found some yellow cable that he thinks will work in the interim. I asked him if we still needed VINGN to go out and he said no. He will get the cable that JE is bringing down tomorrow and swap it out. He will let us know how it is working this afternoon.

With warm regards

Cecile
