Subject: [REDACTED] trip to St. Bart's FYI

FYI...all the hotels on St. Bart's have a no cancellation policy at this time of the year...we book the hotel and must pay upfront and will not get our money back. The hotels also have minimum nights of stay...6 nights is the least we can find that is available at this time [REDACTED] requires (Christmas and New Years are the problem) The hotel we are looking at is 750 euros a night.

Also, the ticket on Tradewinds is non refundable (the flight from San Juan to St. Bart's round trip). It will be around $1240.00
