Dear all,

Well, one should never disobey a lady,=and so may I express my interest in the get-together that [REDACTED] suggeste=?

I am indeed in NY until next Thursday,=but it's probably short notice for all of us -- plus my head is so full of=relocation logistics that I won't be much good on real topics! My ne=t visit is June 9-14, and I will then be in NY for good after July 3.

Boris, I agree with you (as usual) on =he Innovative Financing issue... and happy to lend a hand where appropriat=/helpful. I understand that some consultants might already be on it.=. beating those around is a favourite pastime of mine (I can say this, having been one myself many years back). <=r> All the best, and looking forward to c=nnecting --

Michael

Hi Michael,

So sorry that I missed =EF meeting last week. It would be fun to hang out.

[REDACTED]. I knew that you two would cl=ck well.

Terrific that [REDACTED] also made an introduction to Jeffrey. We should meet sometime soon (I think you will be spending significant time in NYC).

You might want to think about organizing a session on Innovative Financing mechanisms in Davos 2012.

This is something we have been thinking a lot. And as you know Bill is preparing a report for G20 meeting later in year.

Let's talk soon in more details,

Again – sorry that I missed last week!

All the best

Boris

Hello to the three of you.

Michael is a [REDACTED] and I spent some time with him in Cape Town and London – transitioning from Barclay to WEF very soon.

I am constructing my very own Venn diagram between you guys....I think the overlap space has potential.

There is perhaps quite a lot for you to discuss relative to the ideas around innovative finance and Lord knows, probably math and physics too.

Not sure of everyone's travel plans but I recall that Michael may be in NYC next week.

I've mentioned this introduction to each of you separately but figured that a formal linkage was the best next step.
