
From: John Brockman [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, November 11, 2016 10:32 PM
To: Jeffrey Epstein
Cc: [REDACTED]
Subject: Katinka's "Spiders" in "Plant: Exploring the Botanical World" (Phaidon)

="nbsp; "Matson is the first artist to have taken scanning ="nto the realm of high art." (Phaidon Editors, in ="E2◆◆Plant")

JE,

I want to send you a copy of the =orgeous new Phaidon book, "Plant: Exploring the Botanical =orld"
<<http://bit.ly/2arZcTe>> , a "curated selection of 300 of the most =autiful and pioneering botanical images ever", including =otanical works from cave-dwellers 9500 years ago to the murals of =ncient Greece, to Linnaeus, da Vinci, Pierre-Joseph Redoute, Darwin, =mily Dickinson, van Gogh, O'Keeffe, Ellsworth Kelly, =applethorpe, and...Katinka Matson.

In =ddition to inclusion of Katinka's iconic image "Spiders" in the =olume, she is featured by Phaidon in the first serial article in major =ublications such as The Guardian <<http://bit.ly/2el8VIJ>> , and LIFO, =he largest news site in Greece, which selected "Spiders◆=9D as the lede image (viewed on a desktop browser, below). And take a =ook at her recent work on her new website: katinkamatson.com.

Where shall I send the book?

Best,

JB
[REDACTED]

<=div>
=