The story is with her editor. She continues to ask if you will speak with her. Of course, I know the answer. I told her off the record about Fisten, which she found very interesting and is going to check it out. She said, "I wonder if this guy is the source of the so-called opening of an FBI investigation. I responded I didn't know, but interesting thought. I also told her about the stolen address book.

She mentioned during the call got an email blast from Ghislaine Maxwell's PR people who wrote her lawyers had written the British papers, they hadn't properly responded and she was considering suing them. (For what that is worth).

Separately, let me know if you want me to contact the Sunday Mail re: Fisten (at an editor level) or Paul to do it.
