Subject: Please advise if OK to fill in N/A for the rest of the Oncoblot questionnaire

I called and spoke with Dana Morgan re the Oncoblot test. They do test blood to pick up cancer that has not been detected yet by scans...we need to fill in N/A for all the questions re cancer. (Jeffrey, may I fill in N/A for all the remaining questions?) Once form is received they you can schedule a consultation (if you want) for $95 for 15 minutes....they will ship us the kit for $850 plus shipping. The closest lab in our area that will test your blood is in PA ...or we can ship overnight to the Oncoblot lab in Indiana. Once the lab receives the specimen it's about a 15 working day turnaround. We will then contact him about a followup SKYPE or telephonic consult = $95/15 minutes. If it is determined he have cancer we can put together a treatment plan as we are integrative cancer specialist. You can learn more about us at the site beneath my name.
