Subject: Report #154: Blessed dates

Hallo All!

Wow... My friend's mom is visiting her in [REDACTED]. They went to [REDACTED] to visit and got in a fight. My friend left her mom on the street and said=she had to make her own way back to [REDACTED]! That's tough love!

I was grocery shopping and wanted to get some dates. I found the juicy kind=I like, but they were so expensive one would've thought Allah himself =ame with the dates. Then I saw that the dates were BLESSED! This made my p=evious statement a lot less stupid!

Since=there were some serious Muslims buying the BLESSED dates I decided to refr=in from buying them. Could've been considered offensive that a clearly=non-Muslim woman would buy blessed dates, so instead I bought some very un=lessed prunes.

Take care,
