Jeffrey, I miss understood. When I arrived at the hotel I reall= thought I had to leave my luggage in his room. I also called him to ask i= it was ok for him and I passed him the girl at the reception so he could =onfirm to her as well. Why didn't he say no to me or her ? Then l=admit it's not very polite to take a shower in someone else room but l=really needed it (I didn't want to smell like the plane) a=d since he wasn't there I took the occasion to take a quick one. I don=#39;t see nothing wrong or suspicious about doing this except the fact=that it is not polite and well-mannered. Then, when he arrived in the room I was about to leave so I was dressed and the bathroom was completely in order. I told him I took a shower and that's it. You can tell him I am really sorry about it and I apologize for this again.

I did tell you repeatedly that the reason you could not come to the university was that the young girl issue there was very very sensitive including protests. . Taking a shower in the room of the most well known married professor , without asking him me [REDACTED] was what. ? how often do you take showers in the rooms of people you do not know , you were told to leave your luggage at the desk, going to his room. was ? shower was ? you tell me . what is your guess of how people at the hotel , his assistant and his wife, thought about it
