Subject: New iMac for 71st

We need to get the final ok but yesterday JE requested I upgrade his current iMac on the 6th floor to the brand new one just released by apple yesterday

Giving him the best of every component would look like this

=/div>

=/span>

As configured above until apple releases the the new Mac Pro this is the most powerful personal computer ever made

If he wants this I think we should order ASAP as many as he needs (at least one) maybe 2 I sent him reduced specs for LSJ FLAGPOLE location just because of the wear and tear that location seems to take.

The request back up is below but still need his final ok on specs if he wants top of the line custom etc

Are you thinking of upgrading 7th ?

I wouldn't wait for maverick should I make up a shopping cart for your 2nd and 6th floor ?
