
From: Peggy Siegal <[REDACTED]>
Sent: Thursday, April 17, 2014 9:02 PM
To: jeevacation@gmail.com
Subject: Fw: Annette Siegal Estate

How does this sound. Can I call you? Peg

Do you know we got four seats from the production company for you. We have called Herman Agar, the ticket broker for the other four. Waiting to heat. We are on it. Peg

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, April 17, 2014 04:56 PM
To: Peggy Siegal; [REDACTED]
Subject: Annette Siegal Estate

Peggy and Martin

The lawyer for the personal representative called me this evening. He told me that there had previously been an accounting of the estate and that he would be send me the relevant documents on Monday. From his perspective it is time to finalize this matter and he had been relying on Duane Morris in New York. He said that by entering an appearance that I had "lit a fire" under New Jersey counsel to produce what they are supposed to produce. He said that he was not involved in any of the negotiations but that he understood that it was very close to being finalized.

Hopefully when Philip calls tomorrow I will have a clearer understanding of where things stand. If they have already accounted, we may have to chart a different course.

Jim

James R. George
Shareholder
Greenberg Traurig, P.A. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] www.gtlaw.com <<http://www.gtlaw.com/>>

If you are not an intended recipient of confidential and privileged information in this email, please delete it, notify us immediately at postmaster@gtlaw.com, and do not use or disseminate such information. Pursuant to IRS Circular 230, any tax advice in this email may not be used to avoid tax penalties or to promote, market or recommend any matter herein.