Hi Myla,

You may have already received news from crew members via email / Facebook that, after three years of dedicated service aboard MY Te Manu, Chef Simon resigned from his position in February 2016 & has returned to South Africa.

In order to assist the new Chef to prepare the provisioning order for your upcoming cruise, please forward guest information (Total number Adults / children) / food preferences / allergies etc and advise if the previous guest information provided (see attached) is still valid.

Hello Capt Dave,

Hi Kathia,

Apologies for not responding sooner, Tatich has been having a good time & has been keeping us all busy (Saint Martin - Anguilla - St. Maarten's)

Your suggested itinerary sounds perfect & is almost identical the itinerary I was planning to propose

If the weather is good, the children will enjoy the beach & water sports from the anchorage at Orient Bay, Saint Martin.

We can also plan a beach day for the children whilst anchored near the island of Tintamare, Saint Martin.

It may be possible to leave early morning from the port in St. Bart's 04/09 & still catch the flight from Saint Martin at 2:00 pm but we will be very rushed

I will ask Myla to forward details of your wine & beverage list from last year, we have a good wine / beverage supplier in St. Martin who can supply most labels

MY Te Manu has eleven crew (Seven male / Four

Best Regards

Hi David!

We are so excited to see you on the end! I suggest that we stay in St Marteen (in several of the beautiful hidden spots) from the 2nd to the 5th (3 nights). Then we should leave to St Barth on the 5th and stay there until the 9th (4 nights). Please make sure to stay on Friday night in St Barth (so we can go out our last night) and we can head back to St Marteen very early on the 6th.

For the 2nd leg of my trip, we can do something similar, or add 1 night in Anguila instead of St Marteen, I also want to try to be here on wednesday night to have wed, thursday and Friday same deal to be back early morning on the 16th. LKM if this is possible.

This way we can arrange dock for St Barths!

Regarding wine and drinks, can you tell me how much we have left over from last year? We can then decide if we need to buy more and the contact to order and where should it be delivered.

Finally, please send me the amount of crew members (including gender) as we have a little surprise for everyone.

Thank you!

Kathia
