Myla!

Good Morning,

That is fantastic thank you so much!

Have you been trying to reach my cell because I lost my cell phone somewhere so I'm trying to get back my same number today!

Also, today I'm going to go to my doctor to just check up because I have a visit with him every 6 months to make sure I'm all okay with tests and what not. I'm starting today at 10am so I just want to wait back for my results just to make sure everything is alright with me! I will get my results Monday! So if I can start either Tuesday or Wednesday that would be great!

<=iv>

I can't thank you enough! Very excited to start this week! Please contact me through here as I am using my computer to check my emails!

Kind Regards,

Hi Desiree,

Well received.. You can start on Monday @ 8 am Marigot Fort Louis. Give me a call so we can meet up at the gate you might need a gate key to get in to the marina. Thanks

Kind regards
Myla

Good morning Myla,

Attached are the certificates. This is how my STCW and security awareness looks like and this is the official card certificate. My ENG1 also is back to front the official certificate.

I remember explaining you that my Food and Hygiene is a part of my whole degree that is Hospitality Management.

Kind Regards,
