Hi Gwen ,

The 10lb case will do , would you be able to get me 8 each peaches 10 each nectarines and 12 pears. I don't need too many I only have 7 guests onboard from tomorrow. We will dock in SXM tomorrow. Would a mid afternoon delivery be fine ?

Kind regards
Dean

Hi Dean,

I tried to find a way to import the steaks for tomorrow but the butchery did not feel comfortable sending perishables over the weekend and has refused to do it. They can have it sent down on Tuesday earliest. My other options are select or choice portions in a 10lb case or a choice whole strip.

How would you like to proceed?

Thanks,

Hi Dean,

Can do on the yogurts!<=p>

As for the steaks- unless I bring those in from the butcher in NY where they are cut to order I will only be able to get them by the 10lb case, which means you will receive more or less 20 steaks. I'm not even sure I can get them that small, to be honest. I received some 10oz (280-300g) strips today and they were very small. If I can find some that size on island they will probably only be select grade. Can you wait the few days for me to get something from the states which will be of higher quality and cut to your specifications or a large box now of lower grade.

How would you like to proceed?

Thanks,

Gwen
