Hi Dave

This is not the case you called me at around 1520 Local time 1920GMT as per your statement of facts. The salvage operation started at 0920 Local time A full 6 hours before informing WYM. When in fact you should have informed the DPA, Bob, as soon as possible after the event started.

We cannot use your salvage as an exercise as you only called me 6 hours into the salvage and that was only for advice on Lloyds open form and handing Game 7 over to the local tug, so as you did not follow IS procedure we cannot use it as an exercise.

Best Regards

Allan Wilson

Hi Bob,

I am surprised to be informed that you were not aware of the incident until the following day as WYM were kept informed throughout the incident

FYI - Allan Wilson was the first (Shore based) person contacted via telephone during the initial stage of the Emergency Response - Allan later returned my call on at last two separate occasions during the salvage operation

Best Regards

Hi Dave,

Not sure what further correspondence you need.

Ref the Game7 salvage, Mark Ranon, the auditor read the Incident reports and e mails and presumed that we were part of the salvage. As I was not aware of the incident until the following day, I cant log it as an Emergency Respon=se on our side. I didn't bother pointing this out to Mark. We will do=an exercise with Quantum Blue in Norway next week.

Kind regards

Bob

Dear All,

Please find attached copy of our Internal Audit of the SMS which was completed yesterday.

Its worth noting the conclusion regarding renewal of your STCW qualifications before 1 Jan 2017. If left to 2016 you might not be able to find an available course

Kind regards

Bob
