Subject: flight allowance

Hi Allan

Just reminding you to check your records regarding myself and Myla's 2013 flight allowance which I believe was not paid to us. I remember talking / emailing about this several times previously.

Myla and me are currently in Prague and due to fly to Paris tomorrow. We will be there until the 28 sept and hope to leave for the Philippines that day or soon after, I guess depending on flight availability. As far as I know, we plan to be there around 1 month after which we will probably head to Florida as Myla will visit her family and I need to complete stcw etc.

Regards,

Phil+ Myla
