Tamryn,

My apologies, they must have been misplaced at shipping. I have attached all of the documents that should have been in that order. Thank you.

Hi Cindy

That's ok. We are in no rush.

I think it would be easier for you to provide the agent if that's ok.

Thank you and I hope you have a wonderful year:)

Tamryn,

I just wanted to update you on the flight. The next flight leaves on Tuesday, all of your items including the Fridge Goods will make that flight. Please remember that the fridge goods must be put into a refrigerator as soon as they arrive there to remain good. You will receive an email once the items ship.

Thank you.
